

HB 163 -- PRISONER TELEVISION PRIVILEGES

SPONSOR: Eggleston

This bill provides that, beginning August 28, 2017, inmates may only watch broadcast television programming accessed through a television antenna. If a correctional facility is under a contract on that date, the requirements will take effect for that facility upon expiration of the contract. Protocols for properly disposing of any leased equipment are specified in the bill.